ADVOCATE

1972

Needham High School
Needham, Massachusetts

Archives
JUNE 1972

Learn to limit yourself, to content yourself with some definite thing, and some definite work; dare to be what you are, and learn to resign with a good grace all that you are not, and to believe in your own individuality.

—Frédéric Amiel

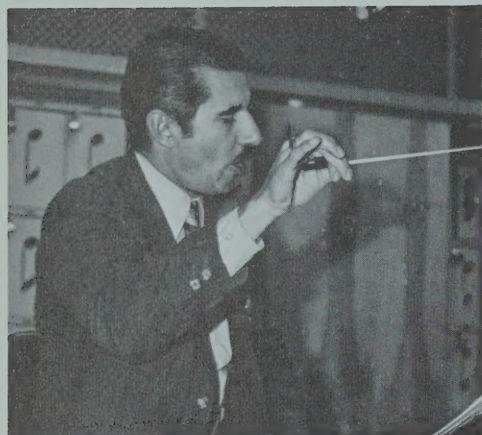

Needham High School impresses each student who experiences it in a different way. The cover of ADVOCATE 1972 is one student's impression of the school. The multi-circled square represents the school as a community. The square with two circles represents relationships which exist between two people, whether they be two friends, a student and a teacher, or even two opposing athletic teams. Finally, and most importantly, the large single circle represents the individuality of each person in the school. This individuality is perhaps best expressed in students' creative work, the focus of ADVOCATE 1972.

Cover and dividers by John Tracey '72.

ON CREATIVITY

The man who follows the crowd, will usually get no further than the crowd. The man who walks alone is likely to find himself in places no one has ever been before.

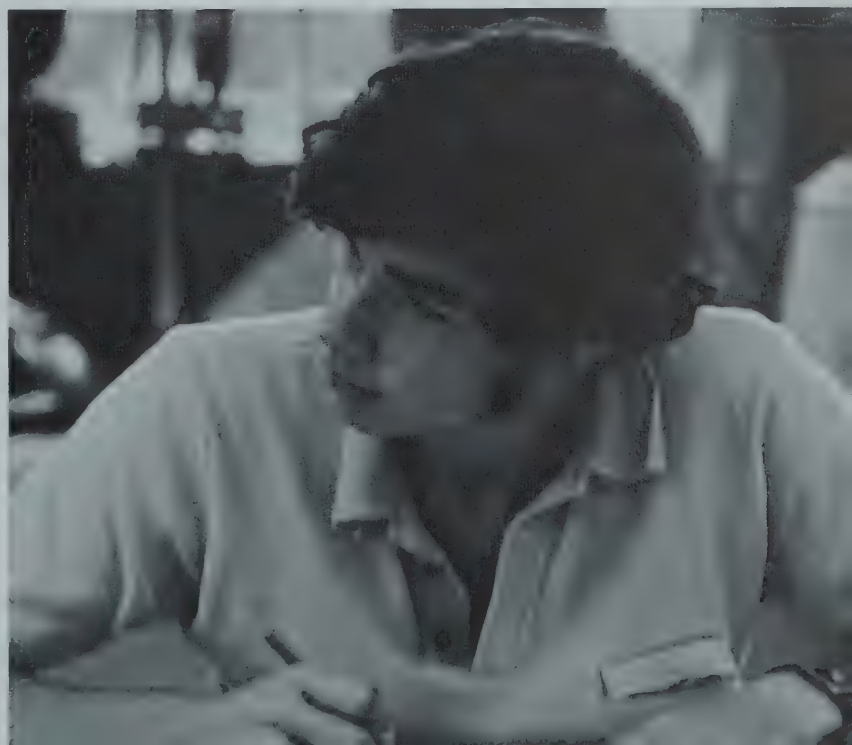

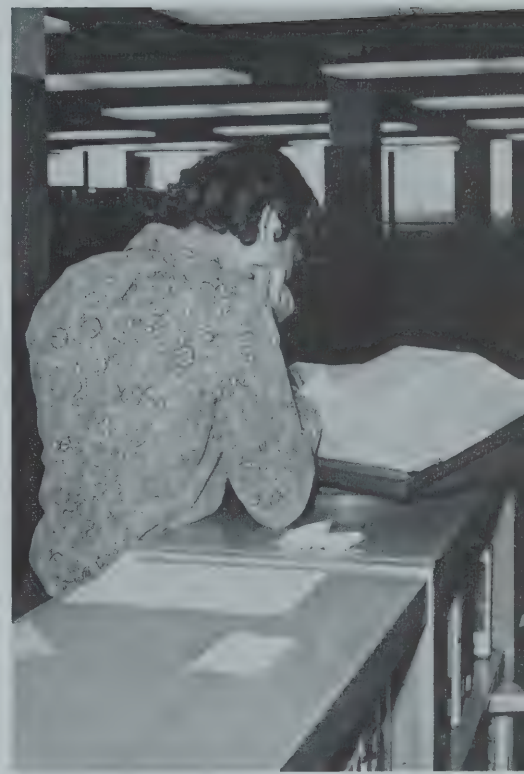

Creativity in living is not without its attendant difficulties, for peculiarity breeds contempt. And the unfortunate thing about being ahead of your time is that when people finally realize you were right, they'll say it was obvious all along.

You have two choices in life: you can dissolve into the mainstream, or you can be distinct. To be distinct, you must be different. To be different, you must strive to be what no one else but you can be ...

Alan Ashley-Pitt

Creativity, of course, implies an expression of self.
Thomas J. Cottle

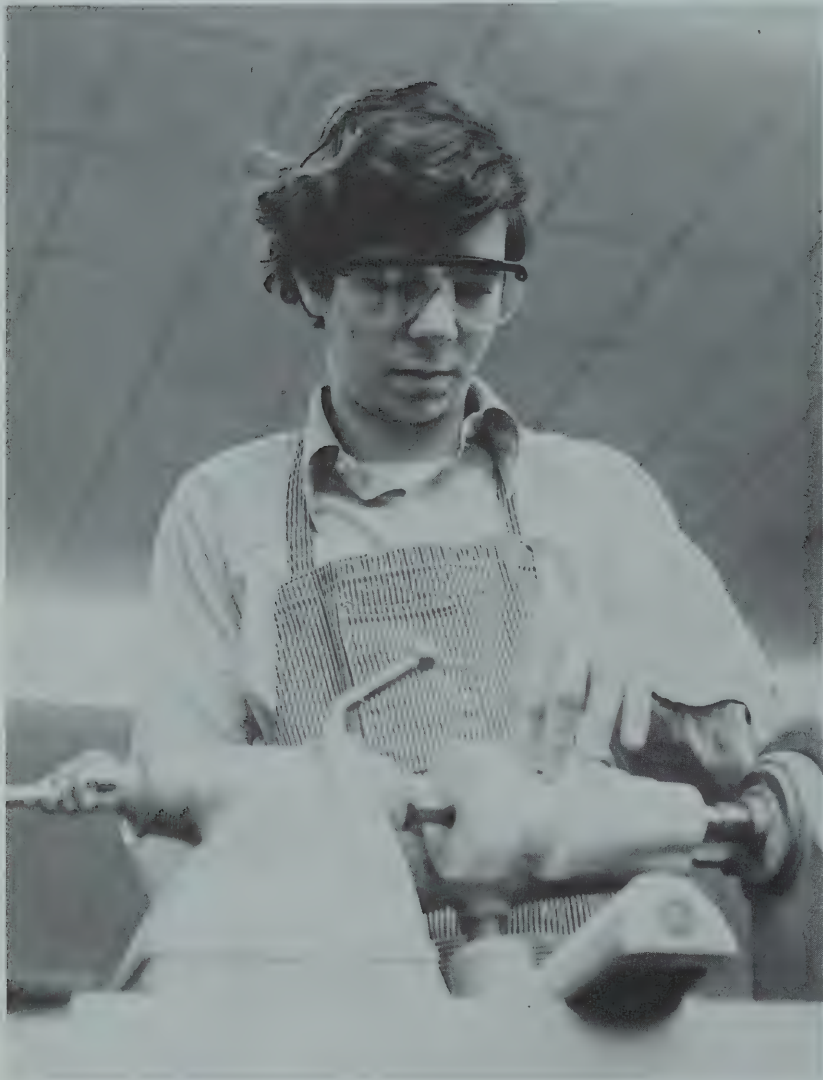

In the midst of lonely beings;
I feel freer and happier.
For I have not drawn a curtain in front of my face.
Paul Fisher '72.

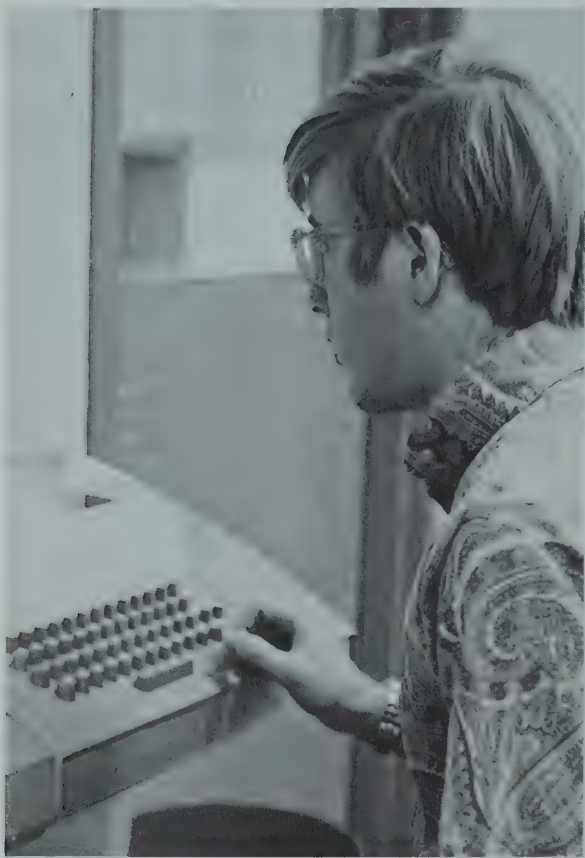

The object of art is to give life a shape.
Jean Anouilh

Cease to use your hands, and you have lopped off a huge chunk of your consciousness.

George Orwell

DESKS

The seats in my room
Are covered with the pains and joys
Of people beyond my recollection.
Each one has left his mark upon the top
Though some have left theirs underneath
(If chewing gum can be called a mark)
Others, I suppose, have written nothing
Which is itself a statement on themselves
Or perhaps me.
I wonder what would happen if there were no desks
If we simply stood and wrote or stood and listened
And there was no slab-topped desk to write all over even carve if one was of a mind for that.
And what if all the walls and floors and ceilings
Were made of glass . . . and pens wrote with clear ink
So one might write until his arm fell off
And never see his thoughts turn into words.
And what if all the restrooms were the same
And all the subway walls were that way too—
Where would we go to write the thoughts and feelings burned so deep into our soul that there was no one we could say them to.
How would we find the place to write the jokes so silly or so sick (we're never sure) that we didn't feel like saying right out loud.
I think we'd end up writing upon ourselves
Upon our faces and our arms, across our chest
Only then the words would make us look so foolish
We'd never take ourselves into the streets
And never want our friends to see our lives.
Until one day the new sun would reveal
A hundred million billion lonely souls had fallen prey to wordless isolation dying with unspoken words and phrases draped upon their bodies like so many wreaths.
If all of that should ever come to pass
I think the saddest thing about it all
Would be we wouldn't have our desks as tombstones
Covered with the thoughts we could not speak—
The pain, the joy we left in soundless statement.
So please don't say the desks are looking badly
Or tell me that the words should be erased
I would hate to see the soundless slabs refinished—
The words of countless souls upon their surface
Beaten, scraped and sanded out of seeing
To settle back to earth as fine ground dust.

—William Finard
Spring—1971

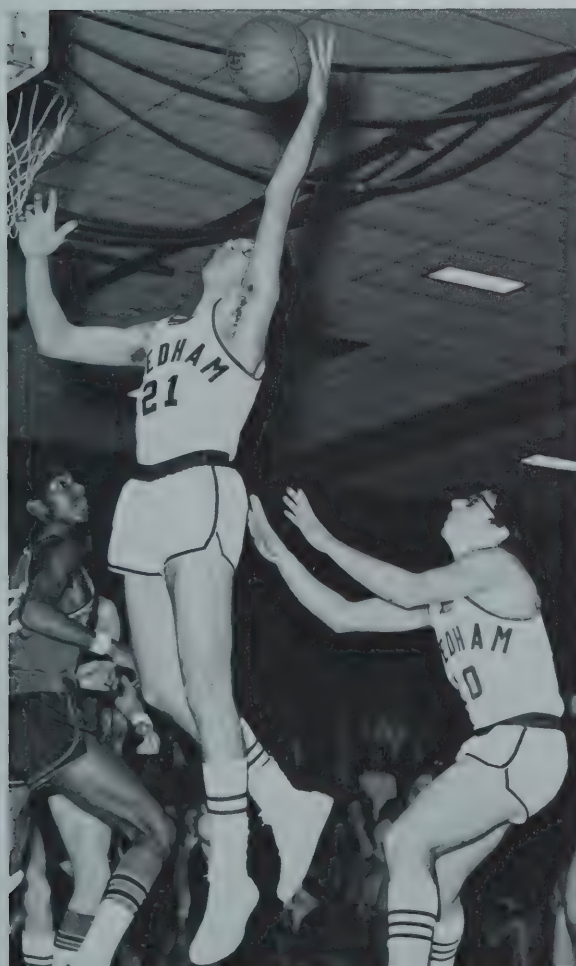

What was any art but a mold in which to imprison for a moment the shining elusive element which is life itself—life hurrying past us and running away, too strong to stop, too sweet to lose.

Willa Cather

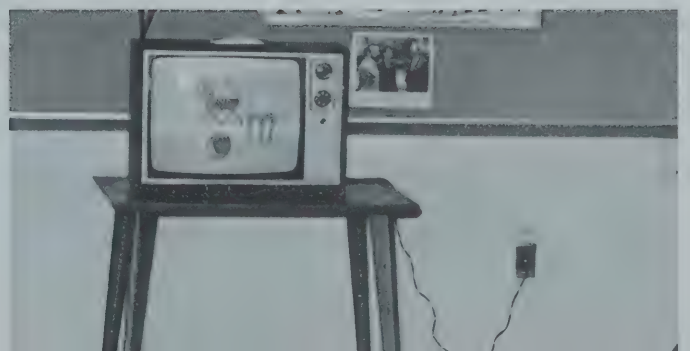

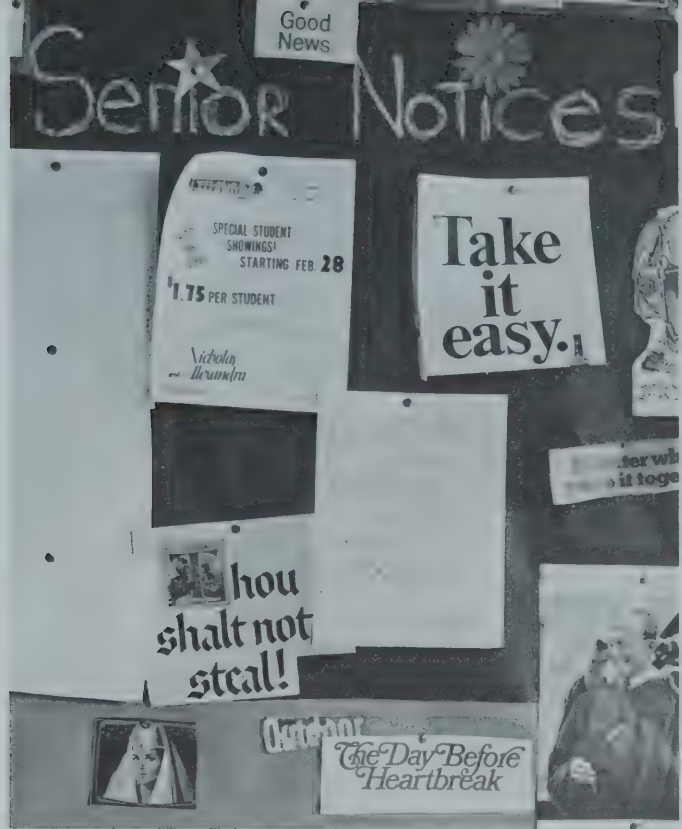

There are those who do not imitate,
Who can not imitate
But then there are those who emulate
At times to expand further the light of An original glow.

Johnny Cash

Music is playing inside my head
Over and over again
My friend, there's no end to the music ...
Carole King

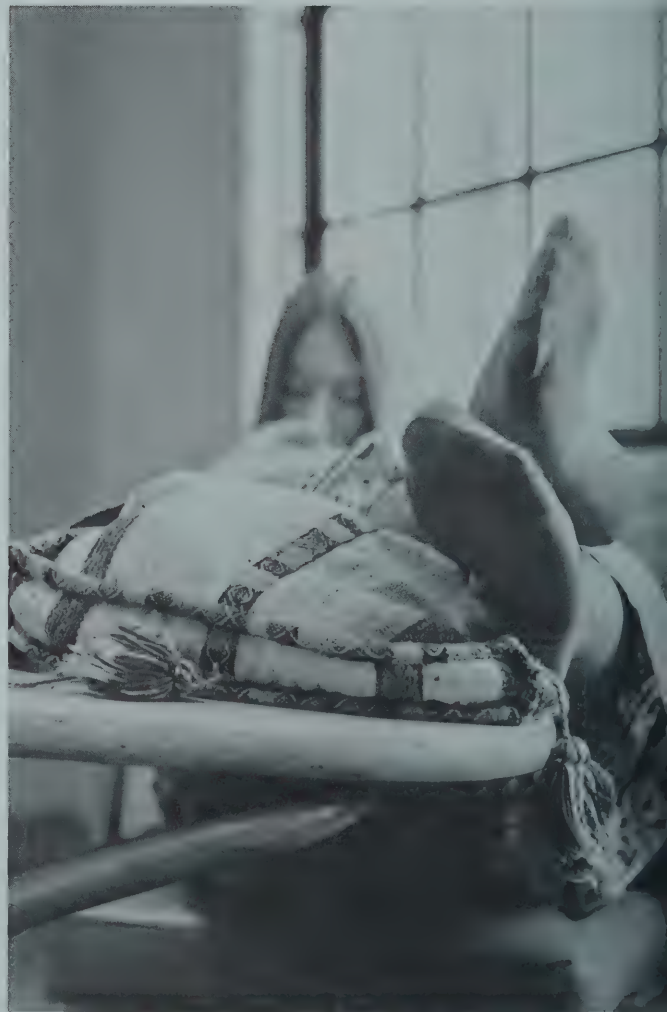

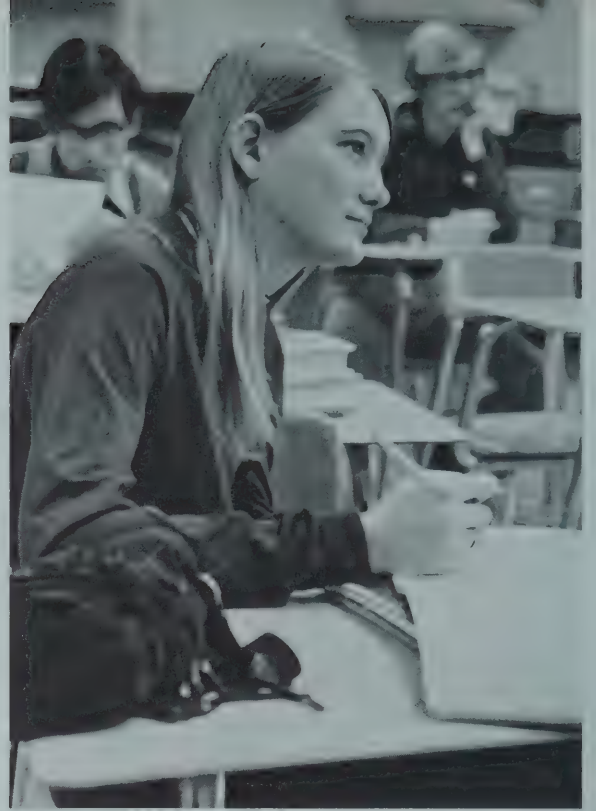

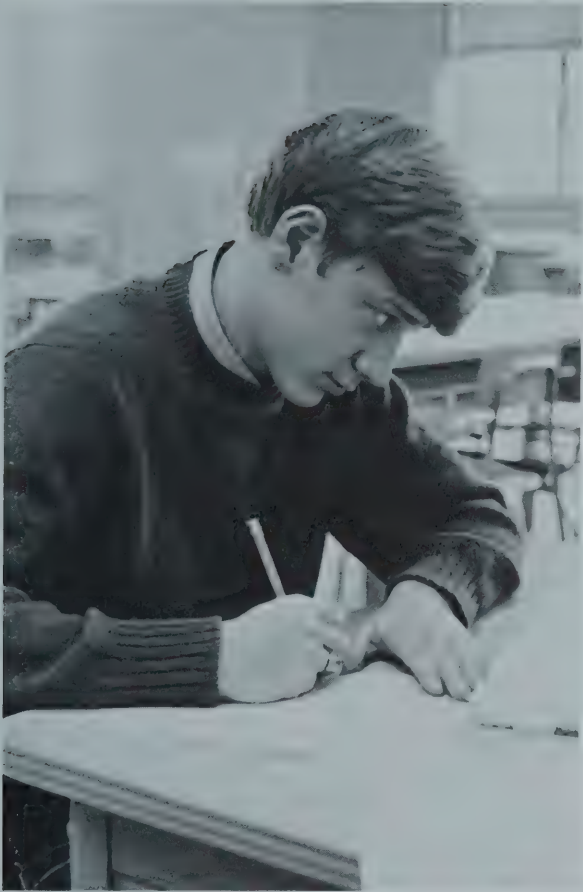

Thinking is always the stumbling stone to poetry.
Kahlil Gibran

For the Follower
 I'm not going to follow you
 Into your dim unyielding thought.
 Forgetting, escaping reality that I know
 Just for an image.
 What is your picture, friend?
 Why do you make yourself a river
 When you are not yet ready to be a stream—
 We haven't talked for days now.
 I can't change, I won't follow you.
 I don't expect you to follow me.
 I am myself and you are you.
 We were so much closer once, friend
 But I have learned a while back
 Not to weep for the past.

Karen Panasevich '72

Creativity often requires one to be able to work without knowing where one's project is heading.

Thomas J. Cottle

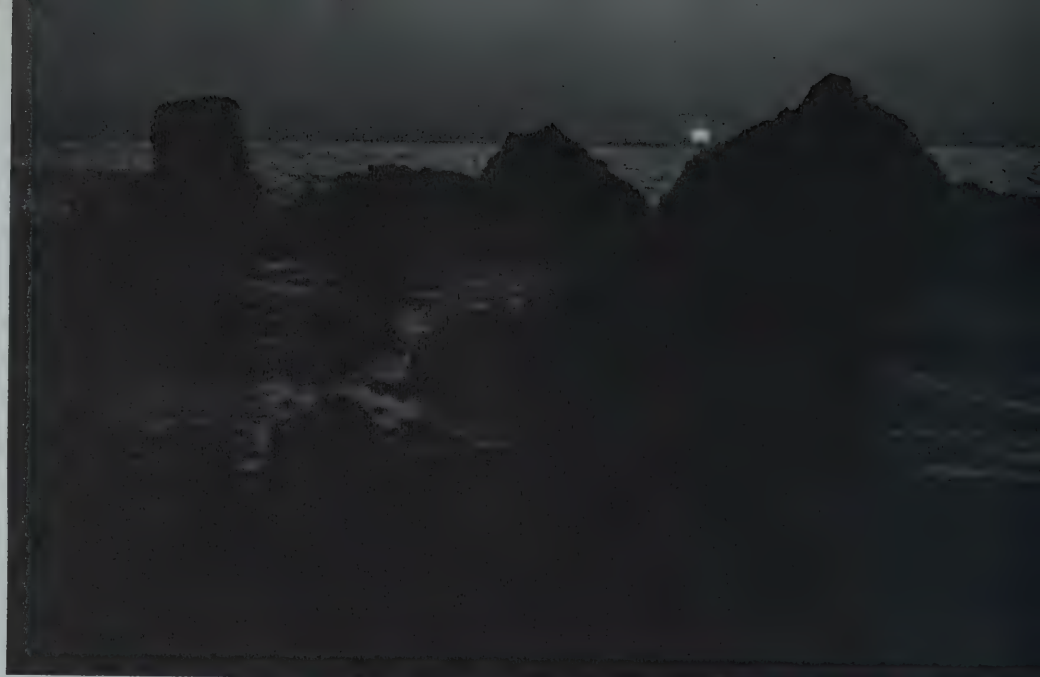

Life is not a science but rather an art to be lived by each person in accordance with the rules of his own being.

Joseph Wood Krutch

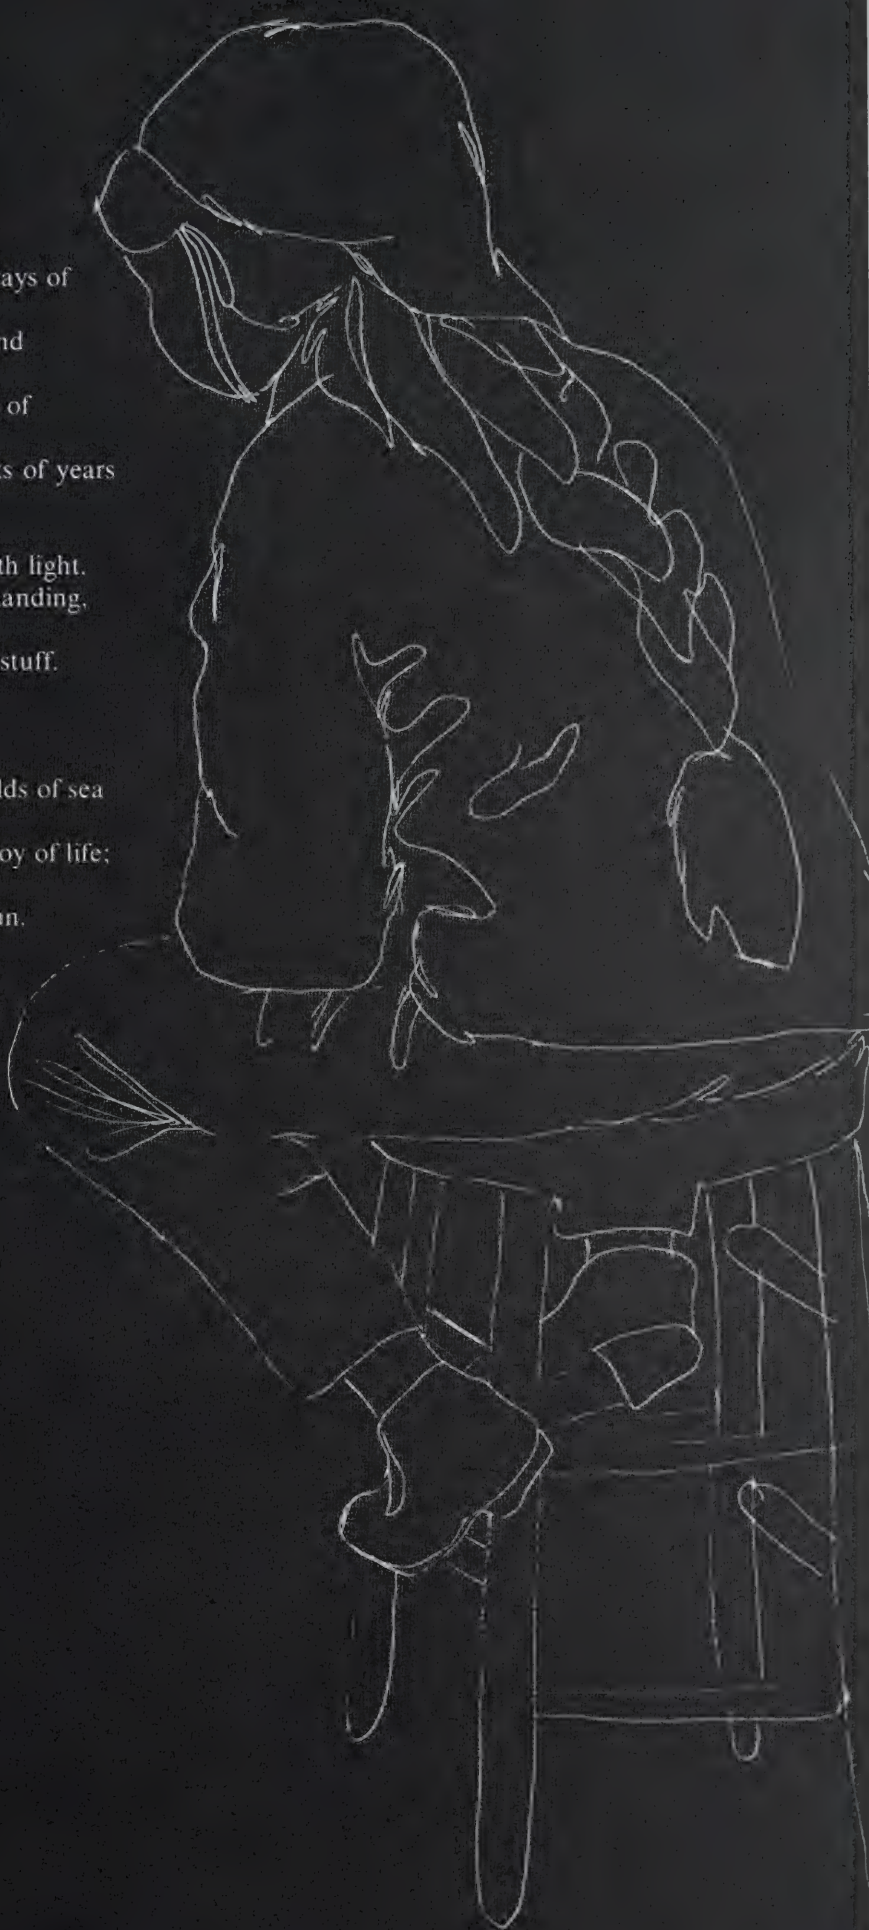

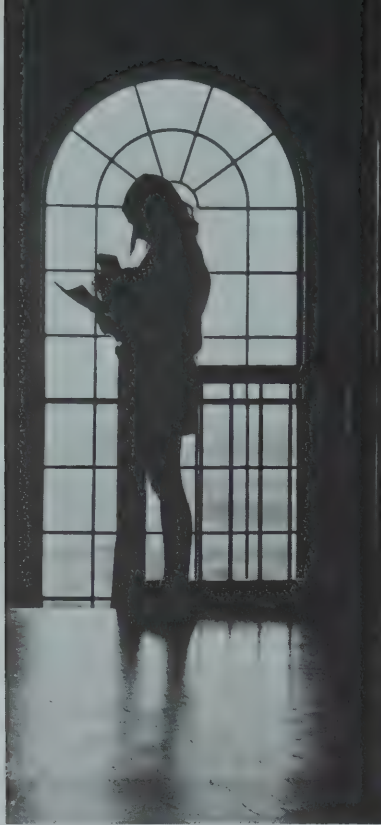

They came with the sun of morning, amid its webbed and wandering goldenness
And their song was one of light and promise and spun-threaded silver dreams
And with these dreams and whispered hopes They painted colored windmill days filled of friends and ways of kindness and quiet
That over and again brought them the comfort of smiles and sprinkled sunshine
Through their wandered days of search and forgotten days of aloneness.
And through their timeless searchings and endless thoughts of years and days
Their minds grew and came to touch
Tomorrows wonderous and unknown and dreams filled with light.
And came to them slowly a part of knowledge and understanding,
And they turned from their sheltered joy and warmth
To try and reach to those whose lives were spun of darker stuff.
And they painted for the lonely
Tapestries of running melted orange to dapple the days,
And for him who saw only darkness and despair
There were etched songs of golden smiles and lavender fields of sea and wind.
And for the bitter they crafted once more the beauty and joy of life;
And to the sorrowful they showed
The running sunshine of the air and the rainbows of the sun.
And him who was yet dreamless and hopeless
They comforted with the promise of the rising dawns and dreams of tomorrows yet unborn.

Mary Lemaire '72

Time

The idea of it is as elusive
As the moments that fly by,
Like a phantom that hurries through the night,
It leaves nothing behind but echoing footsteps.

John Marsters '72

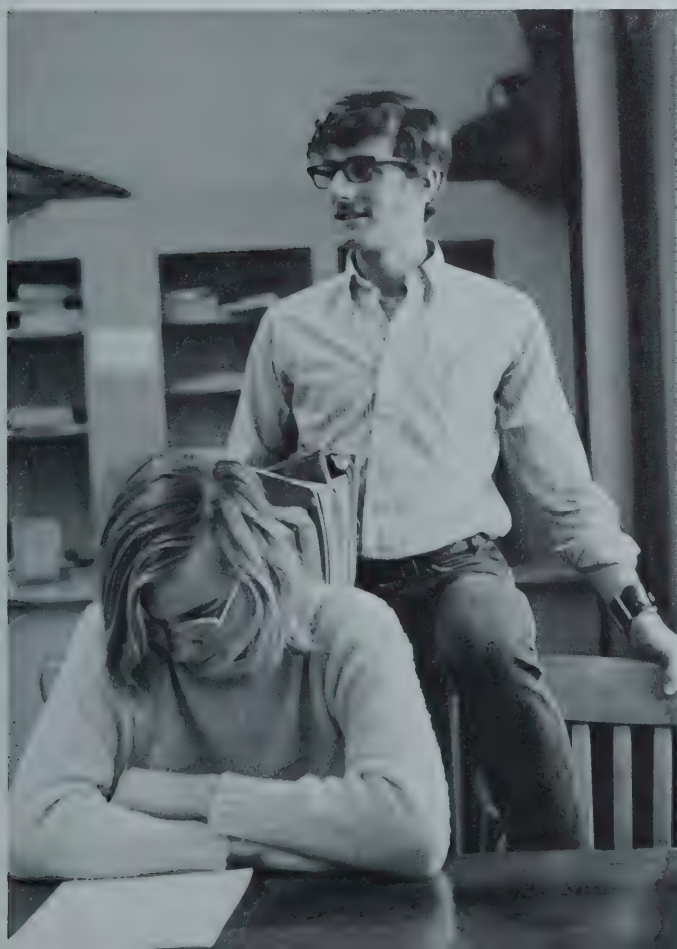

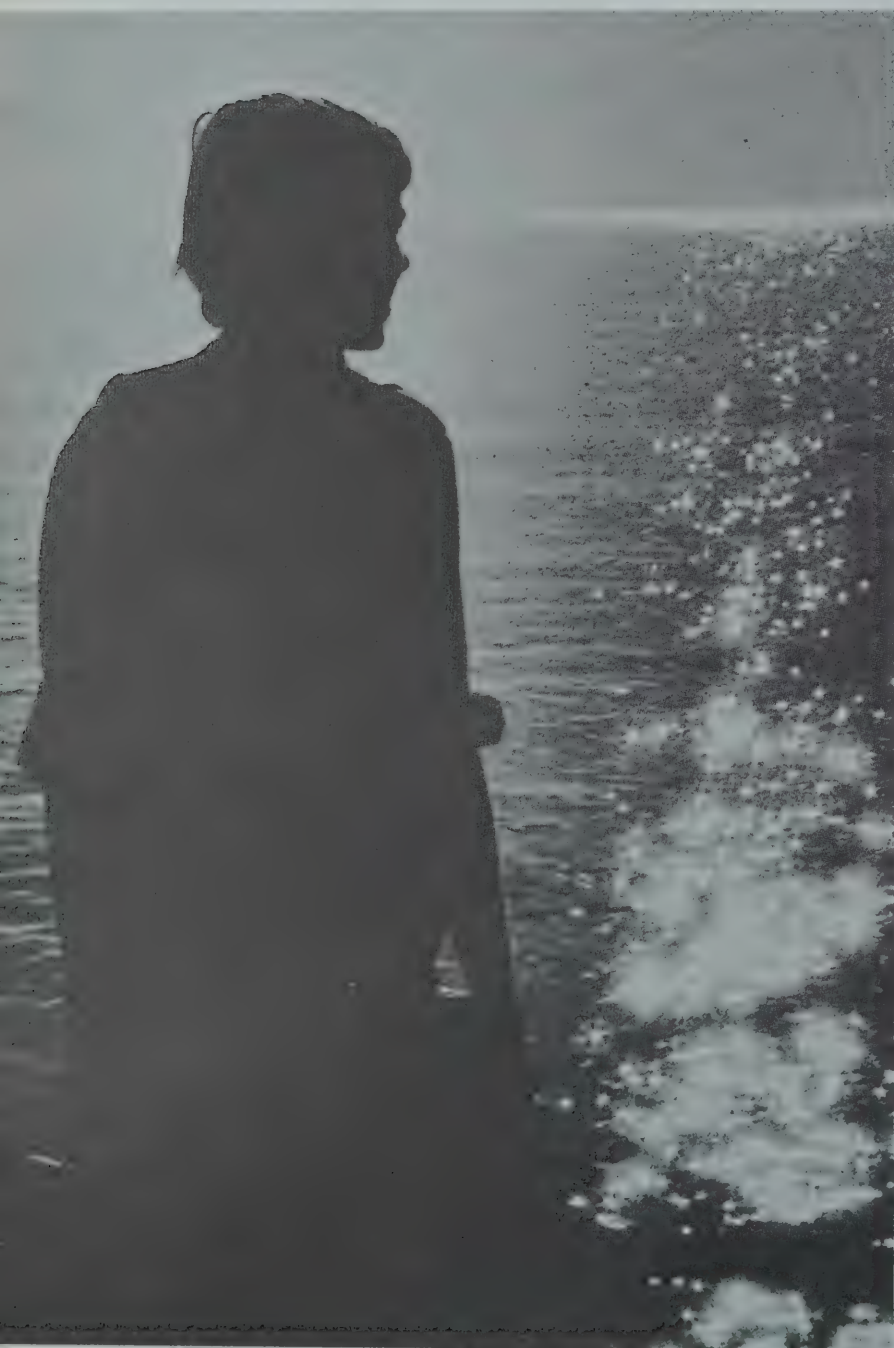

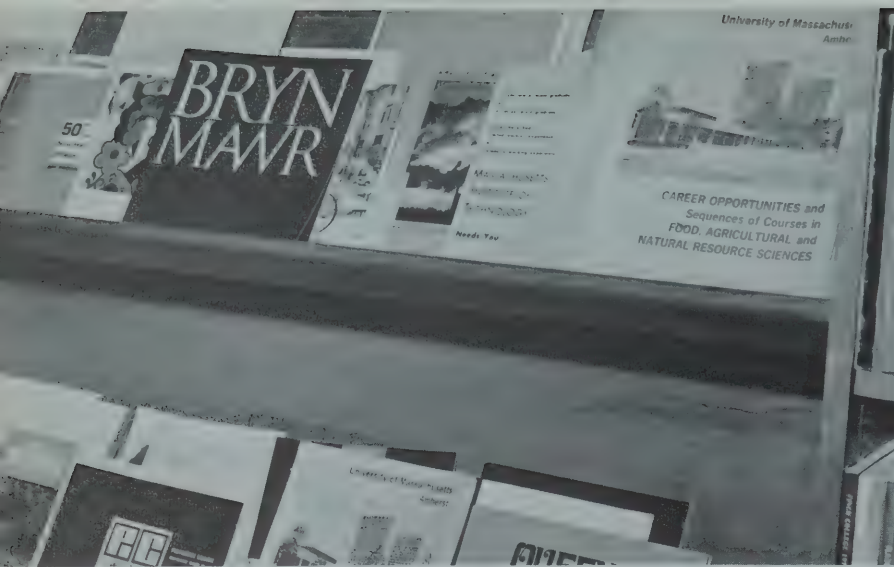

Everyone has choice, when to and not to raise their voices; it's you that decides; which way you will turn . . .

CONGRATULATIONS FROM YOUR 107 YEAR-OLD NEIGHBOR

Yes, we've been a nationally known knitwear manufacturer for over a century, but we think young—young enough to truly appreciate the thoughts and talents of the “now” generation. Everyone at Carter's including these recent Needham High School graduates offers you his best wishes for success and happiness in the years ahead.

If you're starting your career now, perhaps you'd like to be a part of the Carter's team. Call Eliot Olsen at 444-7500. He'll be glad to show you around and tell you about our on-the-job training, good pay and benefits which include tuition aid. And think of all the time and money you could save by not commuting!

the best is yet to come

The symbols and ceremonies, the milestones and magic of these three fleeting years at Needham High will soon settle quietly upon your memory and your heart.

*The blazing autumns and the rustling papers.
The winter winds and the tap of chalk on the blackboard. The green, lazy spring and the tense challenge of tests. And your classmates, teachers and parents.*

*You have learned to learn . . .
and you've just begun.
You have much to do and if you choose to do it . . .
the best is yet to come.*

*Follow your head and your heart.
You'll fly across the sky faster than the sun.
You'll ease suffering and save lives.
You'll build. You'll plant and reap in new ways to feed the hungry world.
You'll expand the law. To guard freedom, guide social change and govern.
And you'll walk. Walk the paths of foreign lands and the faces of distant planets.*

*In your minds and your hearts,
we will go with you.
As you will go in the minds and hearts of others yet to come.*

*This message from Sylvania . . .
a company that cares about what is past,
what is now, what can be, and you.*

*To the 1972 Graduating Class
our heartiest congratulations*

When you start working and receive your first salary, we invite you to come in and open a Savings Account. Then, make it a habit to save something each pay day. Building a healthy bank balance will give you a wonderful feeling and prove that you have what it takes to get ahead financially. We'll welcome you as a depositor.
